RENTER'S OBLIGATIONS
In general, the renter is responsible for set-up, take down and putting away all furniture and equipment. In all cases a damage/cleaning deposit is required. Charges will be made against this deposit if room is not left in a clean and undamaged condition as defined in the contract. Also, charges will be made against the deposit for non-return of the facility key/fob in the case of Culture Centre. Additional charges may be assessed to return the facility to its fully usable condition. See contract document for full details.

Note 1: A key fob system is in use at the Culture Centre.

Note 2: Community Use rate is applicable upon request to non-profit organizations, clubs, committees or collectives comprised of 3 or more persons who are organized around a community benefit activity. The group must be based in High River and have non-profit objectives. The Community Use fee may be offset by volunteer contribution to Culture Centre's maintenance, improvement projects and/or cleanup. Contact the Town's Community Development Worker within the Community Support Services Division. Note that this community use offset is being piloted for 2017/18 and is subject to change.
